We're fielding A LOT of calls for holds pickups and other library issues today. So many that some callers are finding all lines busy, and our voicemail is filled! If you don't get through, please try again, and we expect the calls to settle down over the next few days.

May 15th is the new due date you'll see for your items, but as long as you get them in by June 15th you won't be fined anything, and none of your items will kick over to being "Lost." There is no rush.

If you can't return items for any reason, contact us: <https://www.mylibrary.us/tempct/>

Please use only the outside book drops. Please do not approach staff you may see working. Please do not attempt to enter buildings. Please don't try to hand items to staff. If your items don't vanish from your account right away, don't panic, we're quarantining items that come in for 72 hours. If a bookdrop is full, don't force items in, and don't leave items anywhere around or near the library.

We want to try and spread out item returns a bit so we don't get overwhelmed. We can't/won't enforce this, but it would REALLY help us out if you're able to accommodate us:

If your last name starts with A-E, please consider returning your items on the week of May 11th.

If your last name starts with F-L, please consider returning your items on the week of May 18th.

If your last name starts with M-R, please consider returning your items on the week of May 25th.

If your last name starts with S-Z, please consider returning your items on the week of June 1st.

Because of the statewide mask order, and because High Plains Library District is present in multiple counties and municipalities, users of HPLD locations will be required to wear a mask while inside HPLD buildings.

Interlibrary Loan and Prospector services are restarting, and you may place requests in both systems. Please start with Prospector, and if your item can't be obtained via Prospector, it can then be requested in Interlibrary Loan. Please be patient with these systems. Many libraries have not yet re-opened, and it may take longer to get items.

Returned items are being quarantined for 72 hours immediately after they're received. So, items will remain on your account for about 3 days after you check them in. This is so we can minimize handling of items before they're quarantined and so we can be reasonably sure that checkin surfaces and equipment remain contaminant-free.

Hoopla checkouts have reverted back to 4 per card, per month.

April 29, 2020

(Greeley – April, 2020) – The High Plains Library District (HPLD) is planning to open curbside pickup services on May 6. All library facilities across the District will remain closed through the month of May.

With curbside pickup services opening, this also means patrons will be able to check in their previously checked out materials.

Plans and hours regarding curbside pickup will be posted here shortly.

Patrons will have access to HPLD library facilities in early June. These dates are subject to change based on the guidance of our state and local health professionals.

I have an item on hold, what will happen to it? The library will work to keep all holds in place to be available again once we reopen. If you do encounter a problem with a hold once we reopen give us a call. If you received a message that a hold is ready to be picked up, we will hold on to it until we reopen.

Can I place a hold on a new item? Patrons are welcome to place holds on items, and they will be available for pickup once the library reopens. We will appreciate your patience when we reopen, as we will have a large quantity of holds to process.

What about ILL and Prospector? When we reopen, we will waive all fines on Interlibrary Loan and Prospector items once they are returned.

March 16, 2020

All HPLD libraries will remain closed until further notice – this includes all library programs, events, classes, and meetings.

We are auto-renewing checked out materials and materials on the hold shelves will not expire. You can also renew your items online by logging into your account.

We will not be accepting returns at this time. Please hold onto your materials for the time being.

We encourage our patrons to use our online resources while libraries are inaccessible. We've raised the number of Hoopla checkouts, and many Kanopy items, including those for children, are available for checkout without counting against your limit – click here to view our Stream and Download page.
