Welcome to the High Plains Library District. We hope you see the library as a place for learning, connecting and growing. It is an exciting time for libraries as we strive to meet your needs while also contributing to building a thriving community. High Plains is proud to serve you through our dynamic collections and patron-centered experiences. On behalf of the entire High Plains staff we welcome you to our community of libraries. Come visit us (online or in person) and ask a question, get reading advice, enjoy some alone time, take a class, use our technology or simply gather to socialize with friends. Let the High Plains Library District be part of whatever is the next chapter in your life.
