

THE HPLD 2025 OCTOBER CULT MOVIE VAULT CHALLENGE!

The Rules

Below is the full list of categories/movies. This list will remain full and intact for the duration of the challenge.

As people check movies off from the form, they will disappear. So if you find your category missing from the form, someone else beat you to it! But don't despair, see if your movie might fit another category. If not, well, you'll just have to watch ANOTHER!

You can check off multiple categories with the same movie, so if something fits two different things, boom, done.

You can revisit this form as often as you'd like, you don't need to check off all your movies at once.

I will also warn you that most of these titles are probably not for the kids. Please use your normal judgment in picking a movie for the family.

If you have any super specific questions about the movies you've picked, whether they "count," the answer is "yes."
